SUPPLEMENT TO REPORT NO. 25X1X

1. [REDACTED] the Argentine Federal Police distributed a questionnaire to several organizations which are directly or indirectly connected with the Communist Party. These organizations, which included political, cultural, and labor groups, were given ten days in which to return the completed questionnaire. Since the forms were not distributed to any groups not suspected of promoting Communist ideology, Communists fear that this police action may be the beginning of a positive campaign to control all local groups which are in any way connected with Communism.
2. The items of information requested by the police were as follows: name of organization; date of establishment; name and information on central organization, if the one in question is a subsidiary; branch organizations; complete names and addresses of all members; purpose and aims; ideology; salaries of committee members and employees; statutes.
